

EMCS Steven L. Gustin
Command Senior Chief, Sector Anchorage
USCG

Senior Chief Steven L. Gustin assumed duties as Command Senior Chief, Sector Anchorage on 25 Jun 2014. His primary responsibility is to advise CAPT Sean MacKenzie, the Commanding Officer of USCG Sector Anchorage, Anchorage, AK, on issues and initiatives pertaining to all Coast Guard members and their families within Sector Anchorage. Sector Anchorage includes a Marine Safety Unit, three Marine Safety Detachments, three 110' Patrol Boats, a Small Boat Station, Aids to Navigation Team, a Sector Field Office and over 30,000 miles of coastline; the largest geographical Area of Responsibility in the nation, which includes the oil rich North Slope, Bering Sea, Chukchi Sea, Bristol Bay (with the world's largest run of sockeye salmon), Kodiak Island, Kenai Peninsula, and the Aleutian Islands. Most recently Senior Chief Gustin served as Command Senior Chief and Assistant Engineer Officer on board Coast Guard Cutter FIR Astoria, OR.

Senior Chief Gustin's previous assignments include Command Senior Chief and Assistant Engineer Officer on board Coast Guard Cutter FIR Astoria, OR. Group/Air Station Humboldt Bay, McKinleyville, CA, Coast Guard Cutter ALDER, Duluth, MN, Coast Guard Cutter SYCAMORE, Cordova, AK, and Coast Guard Cutter SWEETBRIER, Cordova AK.

Senior Chief Gustin is a proud graduate of the Coast Guard Chief Petty Officers Academy class 178 and the Coast Guard Senior Enlisted Leadership Course class 01-14.

Senior Chief Gustin's personal awards include one Coast Guard Commendation Medal with "O" Device, two Coast Guard Achievement Medals with "O" Device, Coast Guard Letter of Commendation "O" Device and numerous other service awards. He has earned a permanent Cutterman insignia and a Command Senior Chief Silver Badge insignia.