

Western Alaska Pre-Arrival Self-Examination Checklist

Vessel Name		Official Number
Arrival Port/Facility		Arrival Date/Time
Forward Draft		Aft Draft

Has the vessel received and reviewed a copy of the current Operating Guidelines for Ice Conditions in Cook Inlet prior to arrival? Yes No

Please contact SectorAnchorageArrivals@uscg.mil for a copy

Do deck personnel have adequate winter protective clothing? Yes No

Does the bridge or wheelhouse have adequate heating? Yes No

Inadequate heating would interfere with crew's performance of duties

Do living quarters have adequate heating? Yes No

Inadequate heating would interfere with crew's performance of duties

Has steering gear test required by 33 CFR 164.25 (a) (1) been conducted with satisfactory results? Yes No

Does the vessel have steam or a re-circulation system running to all sea chests? Yes No

Are heat exchangers operating on all secured engines? Yes No

Is emergency generator fuel tank full? Yes No

Is emergency generator set to begin operation automatically? Yes No

Has an operational test of the emergency generator required by 33 CFR 164.25(a)(1) through (3) been conducted with satisfactory results? Yes No

Has an operational test of the primary and emergency fire pumps been conducted with satisfactory results? Yes No

Has an operational test of the ballast water pump been conducted with satisfactory results? Yes No

Has a visual examination been conducted of all lifeboat/liferaft releasing gear and emergency exit doors for excess ice accumulation? Yes No

Is the crew familiar with the vessel's communications procedures, vessel's planned route and collision avoidance procedures? Yes No

Explain any "No" response:

I have read and understood the document Operating Guidelines for Ice Conditions in Cook Inlet and attest to the veracity of this checklist report.

Master's Printed Name:	Master's Signature:
-------------------------------	----------------------------

Any changes to the vessel or its systems before or after an ice exam must be reported to the Coast Guard Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection.

Please send completed forms at least 24 hours prior to arrival in Cook Inlet SectorAnchorage@uscg.mil or (907) 428 - 4114 (fax)