

Master Chief Storekeeper
David Fedison
Command Master Chief

U.S. Coast Guard Sector Guam

Master Chief Fedison began his Coast Guard career in July of 1997 attending Basic Training at Training Center Cape May, NJ. After graduating Basic Training, he was briefly stationed on the USCGC Tampa as a Seaman before attending Officer Candidate School. He decided to return to the enlisted workforce and his next unit was the USCGC Hudson based in Miami, FL. He then headed off to Storekeeper (SK) A-School in Petaluma, CA where upon graduation he departed to the Integrated Support Command in Miami, FL. While there he advanced to Second Class Storekeeper and was assigned as the independent duty SK at Communication Station Miami. He advanced to First Class and returned to ISC Miami later becoming Base Miami. In 2010, he transferred to the Asset Project Office located in Baltimore, MD soon advancing to Chief. As a Chief he served at the Surface Logistics Center and Sector in Baltimore, MD before proceeding to the USCGC Mackinaw in Cheboygan, MI. There he advanced to Senior Chief and served as the Senior Field Contracting Officer after moving to the USCG Finance Center in Chesapeake, VA. In 2019, he proceeded to the Aviation Logistics Center in Elizabeth City, NC before his advancement to Master Chief later that same year. After successfully screening as a Command Senior Enlisted Leader, Master Chief Fedison was selected to serve as the Command Master Chief for USCG Sector Guam in 2020.

Master Chief Fedison is a graduate of the Coast Guard Chief's Academy, class 181, and the Coast Guards Senior Enlisted Leadership Course, Class 61. He also holds two bachelor degrees from the UNC Wilmington in Marine Biology and Geology and a Masters of Business Administration degree in Accounting from American Military University.

Master Chief Fedison's awards and decorations include two Coast Guard Commendation Medals, four Coast Guard Achievement Medals (with 'O' device), and two Letter of Commendations, along with various other personal and team awards and decorations.
