

Travel FAQ

Q1. When I PCS to Guam what type of travel M&IE do I get while flying?

A: You will receive 75% of Guam's M&IE the day you arrive.

Q2. Will I be reimbursed for lodging if I arrive on the weekend?

A: Prior to your arrival you must obtain a statement of non-availability from Navy Lodging to stay in a hotel out on the economy and to be reimbursed.

Q3. Will the Coast Guard pay for me to ship my pets?

A: No, the CG will not pay for the actual travel. They will pay for quarantine fees up to $550.00.

Q4. Am I authorized a rental vehicle while I'm waiting for my POV?

A: No you aren't authorized, unless the date determined for arrival is exceeded.

Q5. Am I authorized to remain over night in Hawaii?

A: No, unless there are extenuating circumstances (i.e. delayed flight, etc.).

Q6. May I be on proceed time and utilize TLA?

A: No, you have to report in to your unit in order to receive TLA.

Q7. When do my COLA and TLA entitlements begin?

A: Your entitlements begin the day you report in to your unit.

Q8. Should I charge my airfare to my gov't travel card?

A: If you exceed 15 days of travel/leave you must charge the airfare to the CBA. If the amount of airfare exceeds $3000.00 you must charge the flight to the CBA.

Q9. How do I pay for my hotel when I utilize TLA?

A: you are authorized to use your gov't travel card to pay for lodging and meals.