

Lieutenant Greg S. Isbell
Executive Officer
USCGC ASPEN (WLB-208)

Lieutenant Isbell reported to USCGC ASPEN in July 2017. Prior to this assignment, Lieutenant Isbell served as Command Duty Officer for Coast Guard District Seventeen responsible for directing SAR, Law Enforcement and Homeland Security response efforts throughout 3.8 million square miles of ocean and 44,000 miles of remote coastline – including Arctic Ocean, Bering Sea, Gulf of Alaska and the North Pacific.

Previous afloat assignments have included tours as Commanding Officer of USCGC SAPELO (WPB-1314) homeported in Puerto Rico, two tours on USCGC DOUGLAS MUNRO (WHEC-724) as Operations Officer and First Lieutenant in Kodiak, Alaska, First Lieutenant of USCGC ZEPHYR (WPC-8) in San Diego, California, Operations Officer of USCGC PADRE (WPB-1324) in Key West, Florida, apprentice navigator of USCGC MORGENTHAU (WHEC-722) in Alameda, California and deck hand of USCGC CLAMP (WLIC-75306) in Galveston, Texas.

Prior staff assignments include Company Commander at Training Center Cape May, New Jersey and Assistant Operations Officer and Deployable Team Leader of Maritime Safety and Security Team in New Orleans, Louisiana.

Lieutenant Isbell entered the Coast Guard and completed basic training at Training Center Cape May, New Jersey in 1995. His professional schools include the Senior Leadership Principles course, Chief Warrant Officer school, Chief Petty Officer Academy, Command and Operations school, Federal Law Enforcement Training Center for Boarding Officers and Quarter Master “A” school. He is currently enrolled at Purdue University pursuing his Bachelors of Science in Business.

Personal awards include the Coast Guard Meritorious Service Medal, six Coast Guard Commendation Medals, three Coast Guard Achievement Medals, two Commandant’s Letters of Commendation and numerous service and unit awards.