

Master Chief Shane M. Carroll

Command Master Chief

Thirteenth Coast Guard District

Master Chief Shane Carroll assumed the duties as the Command Master Chief for the Thirteenth Coast Guard District on 25 June 2021. His primary responsibility is to advise the Commander of the Thirteenth Coast Guard District on issues and initiatives pertaining to all Coast Guard Members and their families throughout the District, encompassing Washington, Oregon, Montana, and Idaho. Most recently, Master Chief Carroll served as the Command Master Chief of Sector Lower Mississippi River.

Originally from Orting, WA, Master Chief Carroll enlisted in October 2002, and served aboard the Coast Guard Cutter CHASE (San Diego, CA) for one year before attending Operations Specialists "A" school in Petaluma, CA. Other assignments include: Group/ Air Station Astoria (Astoria, OR), Sector Honolulu (Honolulu, HI), Coast Guard Cutter MOHAWK (Key West, FL), Communications Area Master Station Pacific (Pt. Reyes, CA), Sector Detroit, (Detroit, MI) and Sector Buffalo (Buffalo NY).

Master Chief Carroll is a proud graduate of the Coast Guard Chief Petty Officers Academy and the Coast Guard Senior Enlisted Leadership Course. He is alumni of Leadership Buffalo's 2018 class. He holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Human Resource Development, Magna Cum Laude, from Hawaii Pacific University.

Master Chief Carroll's personal awards include: a Meritorious Service Medal with "O" device, two Coast Guard Commendation Medals with "O" device, three Coast Guard Achievement Medals with "O" device, and three Commandants Letter of Commendation with "O" device.

He is married to the former Jennifer Lynn Evans and they are the very proud parents of two children: Isla, age seven and Cole, age five.

FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY