

Captain Tony Hahn assumed the duties of Chief of Staff, Coast Guard Pacific Area on May 11, 2018.

Captain most recently served as Commander, Sector / Air Station Corpus Christi. His past assignments include Chief of Public Affairs at Coast Guard Headquarters in Washington, D.C., Commanding Officer of Air Station / Sector Field Office Port Angeles, WA; Executive Officer of Air Station Borinquen in Aguadilla, Puerto Rico; Deputy and Program Manager, Office of Aeronautical Engineering at Coast Guard Headquarters; Aeronautical Engineering Officer and HH65 Flight Examiner at Air Station Houston, Texas; HH65 Engineering Officer and Instructor Pilot for Alaska Patrol Division (ALPAT) at Air Station Kodiak, Alaska; HH65 / HH60J pilot at Air Station Traverse City, Michigan; Deck Watch Officer aboard USCGC CONFIDENCE in Port Canaveral, Florida.

CAPT Hahn is Coast Guard Aviator #3158, has over 4200 flight hours, and holds an FAA Helicopter Airline Transport Pilot, Rotary, Helicopter Certified Flight Instructor Instrument and Airplane Multi / Single engine Land Commercial License. CAPT Hahn was designated a Coast Guard Aeronautical Engineer in 1997 and is a graduate of the U. S. Air Force Jet Engine Mishap Investigators Course, the University of Southern California Helicopter Accident Investigation Course, the U. S. Air Force Safety and Investigation Board President Course, the U. S. Navy Command Safety Course and the Coast Guard Public Affairs Course at the Defense Information School (DINFOS). CAPT Hahn earned the Coast Guard External Affairs Officer subspecialty in 2013, and served as an External Affairs guest lecturer at the Defense Information School, the Coast Guard Leadership Development Center, and Coast Guard Training Center Yorktown.

CAPT Hahn's personal awards include the Legion of Merit, five Meritorious Service Medals, the Commendation Medal, two Coast Guard Achievement Medals, and the Commandant's letter of Commendation. CAPT Hahn was designated an Honorary Chief Petty Officer in 2018.

Originally from Colorado Springs, Colorado, CAPT Hahn has a Bachelor of Science degree in Civil Engineering from the U. S. Coast Guard Academy and a Master of Science Degree in Engineering Management and Management of Technology from the Colorado School of Mines. Additionally, CAPT Hahn completed the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Seminar XXI Fellowship for Foreign Politics, International Relations, and the National Interest in 2013.