Religious Texts and Devotional Materials

For assistance in obtaining printed religious texts and devotional materials please contact the installation chapel.

Religious Ministry in the Navy provides for the free exercise of religion; attends to the sacred, spiritual, and moral aspects of life; and serves to enhance the resilience of Service members, civilians and their families. In this brochure you will find QR-codes for various sacred texts and scriptures. Additional links are provided for several devotionals. No endorsement is implied by providing this material.
