

PSU 305 Command Master Chief Thomas P. LePage Master Chief Petty Officer

Master Chief Petty Officer Thomas P. LePage assumed the responsibilities of Command Master Chief for PSU 305 on July 20, 2019. Master Chief LePage is the senior enlisted leader for the unit, the primary advisor to the Commanding Officer on all enlisted personnel matters and provides counsel and guidance to enlisted personnel.

Master Chief LePage is a native of Norwood, NY. He enlisted in the Coast Guard in August of 1991 and entered the Coast Guard Reserve in January 2002. MCPO LePage's previous assignments include the Senior Enlisted Reserve Advisor SFO Atlantic City, Senior Enlisted Reserve Advisor Station New York, CG Atlantic Strike Team, Environmental Protection Branch Activities New York, Station New York, MLB Station Golden Gate, USCGC EDISTO, USCGC SWEETGUM and USCGC SALVIA. He has been recalled to active duty as the Real Property Asset Enrollment Team Leader with CG Office of Civil Engineering, Shoreline Cleanup Assessment Techniques Team Liaison for Deepwater Horizon, Vessel of Opportunity Skimming System supervisor for Deepwater Horizon and Operation Enduring Freedom with the Atlantic Strike Team.

Master Chief LePage awards include a Coast Guard Commendation Medal, four Coast Guard Achievement Medals with operational distinguishing device and other personal and service awards. He has earned a permanent Boat Forces Operation Insignia, Marine Safety Insignia, and Command Master Chief (Silver Badge) Insignia.

Master Chief LePage is a graduate of the CG Senior Enlisted Leadership Course, Reserve Class 21 of the CG Chief Petty Officer Academy, Maritime Law Enforcement School, and Marine Safety Petty Officer Course. He has earned an Associate in Applied Science degree with a major in Construction Engineering from SUNY Canton and his Bachelor of Science Degree majoring in Biology with a Concentration in Marine and Environmental Biology from Monmouth University. He currently is employed as a Marine Electronics Technician for Octopus Yachts in Wall, NJ where he holds certifications in marine electrical and electronics through the American Boat & Yacht Counsel and National Marine Electronics Association.