

Air Station San Francisco
Command Senior Chief
SCPO Douglas Brodbeck
United States Coast Guard

Senior Chief Douglas Brodbeck currently serves at Air Station San Francisco Command Senior Chief. As Command Senior Chief, he advises Commander Christopher McAndrew, the Commanding Officer of Air Station San Francisco, on issues and initiatives pertaining to morale, welfare, job satisfaction, discipline, utilization, and training of enlisted personnel.

Senior Chief Brodbeck enlisted in the Coast Guard in September of 1999 graduated from boot camp as part of company A-156 in October of 1999. He attended & graduated Aviation Maintenance Technician "A" school at Spartan School of Aeronautics in Tulsa, OK in July of 2001.

Senior Chief Brodbeck's other assignments include Small Boat Station Portsmouth Harbor, NH; Air Station New Orleans, LA; Air Station Atlantic City, NJ; Air Station Savannah, GA; Air Station Kodiak, AK ALPAT Division; Air Station Cape Cod, MA; and HITRON, FL.

Senior Chief Brodbeck's awards include an Air Medal; one Coast Guard Commendation Medal with an operational distinguishing device; six Coast Guard Achievement Medals with an operational distinguishing device; five Coast Guard Commandants Letter of Commendation; and other personal and service awards.

Senior Chief Petty Officer Brodbeck is a graduate of Class 230 of the Coast Guard Chief Petty Officer Academy.

Senior Chief Brodbeck is Originally from York, Pennsylvania before enlisting in the Coast Guard. Senior Chief Brodbeck and his wife Stephanie reside in Alameda, CA with their daughter Lola.